

Trade Unions against Racism

Europe's trade unions are committed to struggle against racism. But how effective are they? How best can that struggle be taken up in the workplace?

This Conference concludes a three year research project examining experiences in the UK, France, Italy, Belgium and Bulgaria.

It brings together trade unionists and workers, researchers and anti-racist organisations to exchange ideas about to develop this struggle.

For information and registration:
www.workingagainstracism.org

Funded by the EU

Public
Conference
Paris
20-21 october, 2005

Venue :

Université Paris 7, dalle des Olympiades, bâtiment Montréal, 105 rue de Tolbiac. Paris 13<sup>e</sup>.

Metro : Tolbiac (ligne 13) or Bibliothèque François Mitterrand (ligne 14).

